HB 1672

Brief Description: Clarifying the authority of the director of the Washington state department of personnel and the Washington personnel resources board.

Sponsors: Representative Green; by request of Department of Personnel.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Repeals RCW 41.06.136, dealing with the development of rules by the Washington Personnel Resources Board (Board).
- Deletes references to the Board in RCW 41.06.150.
- Replaces the Board with the Director of the Department of Personnel (Director) in several sections of the code.

Hearing Date: 2/16/07

Staff: Alison Hellberg (786-7152).

Background:

The Personnel System Reform Act (Act) was enacted in 2002. The Act restructured the state civil service system, created a new option for the state to competitively contract work done by state employees, and expanded collective bargaining to include wages and benefits. As part of the restructuring of the state civil service system, the Act transferred rule-making authority from the Washington Personnel Resources Board to the Department of Personnel, transferred appeal authority from the Personnel Appeals Board to the Washington Personnel Resources Board, and abolished the Personnel Appeals Board.

Summary of Bill:

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

References to the Board are replaced with the Director in RCW 41.04.670, 41.06.070, 41.06.093, 41.06.420, 41.48.140, 43.43.832, 70.24.300, 72.01.210, 72.02.045. Language in RCW 41.06.150 dealing with the Board is deleted. The section regarding the Board review of rules affecting classified service is repealed.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.
